Boca Improved As Fishing Lake After Treatment By DFG

The November issue of "Outdoor alifornia," the official publication of the California Fish and Game Department, devoted the front cover and a double center section, with several photographs, entitled "Boca Brought Back," describing in detail how the FGD chemical treatment of the lake produced good trout fishing in one year.

In part the article said:

Boca reservoir is a medium-sized lake on the Little Truckee river near its junction with the main Truckee river. It lies only half a mile north of U. S. Highway 40 and can be reached easily by turning off the highway at Hirschdale exit between Truckee and Reno.

Last year the few fishermen who stopped at Boca reservoir came away saying something like this: "Blasted suckers and chubs! There's nothing worth catching on that lake—I'll never go there again."

But this summer and fall anglers in ever-increasing numbers were singing a different tune at Boca.

"Wow, lookit that string of fish! Nine— and ten-inch rainbows and all as fat as butter. I'm coming up again next weekend and try for another limit!"

WHAT HAPPENED

What happened at Boca Reservoir? Remember last December in Outdoor California—an article called "Fish Are Killed to Improve Fishing"? That article was about Boca Reservoir, and it explained

Four Are Arrested By Patrol On Gun, Narcotics Charge

The watchful eyes of State Patrolman Carroll Maynard Sunday were responsible for the arrest of four persons, two man and two women, wanted in Sacramento and Davis on felony charges.

Maynard was cruising east on Interstate 80 Sunday near Floriston at 3 p. m. when he met a car traveling west bearing a license plate which had been described on an earlier all points bulletin in connection with a robbery at Davis two days previous.

The officer turned to follow the car and at the same time alerted other officers, Sergeant Don Wallace, Patrolman Glen Virus, Bud Meixner and Wayne Hopkins, who were joined by Constable N. F. Dolley.

At the quarantine station, the car stopped and was met by the officers. The suspects surrendered without resistance and on the floorboards of the car officers found a loaded revolver and a package of marajuana. All four were booked at the Truckee jail on charges of possession and transportation of narcotics and for having a loaded gun concealed in the vehicle.

The four are James F. Wheelihan, 33, Fred Carl Kaufman, 25, ex-convicts from Sacramento; Patricia Rorrer, 23, Sacramento, and Peggy Erlene Madderra, 19, Fresno. The latter, officers said, is wanted in Fresno, Sacramento and Davis on check charges.

Wheelihan, they were advised, was wanted for a Sacramento store robbery and on other charges. He was released in November from Folsom, officers said.

Although Wheelihan told officers he purchased the gun in Sacramento, police said it was stolen.

The four had been to Reno where Wheelihan, who gave the name of Billie Joe Mitchum was married to the Rorrer woman. Authorities in Reno said the marriage was not valid because a fictitious name was used.

PASTOR WARNS ON UNKNOWN SALESMEN

Father Patrick Coffey of the local Catholic Parish this week issued a warning to residents of the area against purchasing Catholic books or literature from unauthorized salesmen.

Permission of the bishop, Father Coffey explained, is necessary for selling Catholic materials in the diocese. Careful scrutiny of all credentials is urged in dealing with all solicitors.

DEPARTMENT OUT ON TWO FIRES IN AREA

Theo Scott Tells Of Plans For Marriage

Of interest to many local friends is the engagement of Theo Kate Scott of San Francisco to Mark B. Zaninovich of Delano which was revealed Saturday during an open house in the home of the bride elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Scott of Sacramento.

The Scotts are former residents of Truckee where he was manager of the local branch of Bank of America.

Miss Scott attended elementary school here and also the University of Nevada and graduated from the University of California where she was a member of the Delta Delta Delta sorority.

Zaninovich is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marko Zaninovich and a graduate of the University of California at Davis where he was a member of Alpha Zeta honorory society and vice president of the student body.

GEORGE TIFFEE FETED BY BELMONT SCHOOL

TAHOE CITY—George Tiffee, for many years a resident of Tahoe City and more recently living at Belmont, was given a farewell party by the faculty of the Louis Barrett School in Belmont where he had been custodian for the past seven years.

The occasion was for the faculty to show their high regard and esteem for his faithful service. Principal Battistini told the group that though he regretted it was necessary for Mr. Tiffee to retire because of his health, he was glad that his health remained good enough so that he can enjoy his years of retirement.

The Tiffees will live in Castroville in a home owned by their daughter and her husband.

Mrs. Tiffee taught in the Truckee and Tahoe Lake schools for many years and he was custodian at the latter school.

Hi!—I guess that's a good way to start, since this is my first time with you.

As you have noted, by the absence of this column, Bethel Van Tassell has moved to Reno. She is working for a real estate agent, enjoying it.

The news is scarce this week, since only a few knew there would be a column. No repeats of the situation though—let me know what's going on; turn in your news soon.

Want lots in here, helpful hints, history, news, notes, anything you think might be interesting to the readers of the Sierra Sun.

Welcome to Kings Beach—Don and Nancy Gage—recently married too. Bill and Cledith France and sons Doug and Mark from Sierraville; Jimmy Williams, Jerry Honkanen too.

Harry Hooper and Fred Baker are having birthdays on December 9th—not too much celebrating now—what is it? 21? 22?

Ruth Mizner and Mildred Matthias journeyed to the bay over Thanksgiving to visit Gwen and Dan and the grandchildren. They came back over the new Donner Freeway—comment—"it's sure a nice road."

Remember anyone when it took two days to reach Sacramento, when it was a dirt path, 8 feet wide or less, usually less—when you got out of the Model T going up hill to push . . . when you got out of the Motel T going down hill to tie a log on the back to hold you—and then walked down while someone much braver drove down the cliffs . . . when it was first paved—in 1926? My what a difference!

Soroptimists are meeting on Tuesday at Shubert's while Crystal Bay Club is closed.

Bob and Bernie Jansen in Incline added a new baby girl to their family November 24th. Debbie Ann weighed 5 pounds, 12 ounces.

Marlene Cheeseman (she's usually behind the notes window at Crocker Citizens Bank) is in Tahoe Forest Hospital recovering from major surgery—get well quick, Marlene.

I'm in the mad last weeks of preparation for Christmas. Every year I say I'm going to start early—I've even threatened to start in August—and every year on December 15th, I wake up and realize that I goofed again this year or—Ah, well, there's always next year.

All for this week—remember to let me know when something's about to happen or has happened.

See you next week.

COUNTY IS ELIGIBLE FOR FEDERAL FUND

Cangressman Harold T. (Bizz) Johnson, representing Nevada County, has been advised that the county has been found eligible to participate in the area development program.

In a letter to Congressman Johnson, ARA Administrator W. L. Batt, Jr., noted that certain locally initiated steps must be taken by the community before full assistance can be extended to communities and businesses in the county.

Principal among these is the development of an overall economic development program outlining the needs of the community and a general plan for promoting greater employment in the community, Congressman Johnson noted.

CAR OWNERS

In the United States, 30 per cent of the families own automobiles, reports the California State Automobile Association.

Each year about 1,200 people lose their lives in the United States as a result of fires started by careless smokers.

SIERRA SKIING

By VI WHITE

Those who took the Mt. Lincoln lift at Sugar Bowl last Sunday were treated to a very unusual sight. A heavy cloud bank was hanging over Donner Lake and was so thick that it extended over the whole area leaving just the higher peaks exposed to the clear sunshine above. The clouds even spilled up over the Pass and headed westward to Soda Springs. We felt like we were in an airplane.

It was windy at the parking lot and riding over on the gondola, but once in the Bowl it was nice. The skiing was great on the packed powder snow. Only a few icy patches and rocks kept you alert while skimming over the well groomed slopes.

Sugar Bowl will open for daily operation December 18, but will be open weekends until then. Manager Keith Lummis said that the facilities had their earliest opening date in 15 years, November 21, due to the sufficient snow.

Mike Clark, winter Sports Director at the Sugar Bowl has announced that a 16 mm color film by Warren Miller of Sugar Bowl is available to ski clubs and other organizations free just by writing or phoning him at the Bowl.

Norm and Karen Sayler are again managing the Donner Ski Ranch the last ski area at the end of old hiway 40. The early snowfall caught them without the new addition being finished, but it will be ready for the skiers soon, new rooms and a larger dining room.

A special junior training program is being conducted by Bill Sim of Sacramento. He was junior coach of the famed Edelweiss Red Hornets and says that the program is open to all junior skiers interested in racing.

Members of the Chico State College ski team will be using Hill Top Lodge ski area for their practicing slope this season. The Poma Lift and hill is just above the town of Truckee off the Brockway cutoff.

Skiers please be careful when traveling on the new freeway over Donner Summit. It is still a hazardous road, it is in the mountains and can get icy just like the old road, but we've seen motorists going much too fast thinking it safe because it is wide and one way. Drive with caution and don't jam on those brakes.

PEDESTRIAN DEATHS

Pedestrian deaths account for nearly 45 per cent of all urban traffic deaths, reports the California State Automobile Association.

PASSENGERS DEPEND UPON DRIVER IN ALL TRIPS IN VEHICLES

"When you take your Christmas holiday trip, whether it is across town or to a distant city, give some thought to those sitting beside you or in the back seat, because they are depending upon you, the driver, for their safety."

This appeal was made today by Lt. O. P. Ledford, officer-in-charge, California Highway Patrol, in the Truckee area, while disclosing that maximum possible use of officers and patrol vehicles is planned during the Christmas and New Year's weekends in an effort to keep traffic accidents at a minimum.

"A large percentage of traffic accidents during the holiday season involve family groups, and often the passengers are hurt worse than the driver," Lt. Ledford continued. "There isn't much the passengers can do to protect themselves if the driver gets himself into an accident-causing situation by violating a traffic law or failing to be alert to the actions of other drivers, except to be sure their seat belts are securely buckled." Lt. Ledford also urged motorists to be particularly alert for pedestrians during the holiday weekends, noting that the percentage of fatal accidents involving pedestrians usually is higher during December than in any other month.

SIERRA SKIERS SHOW ABILITY AT MEETINGS

Competing as individuals and not as a team, Sierra College's skiers did well last weekend in the first Far West Ski meet of the season.

Wally Rothgeb, a freshman, was third in 31.2 and sophomore Dennis Ludlow 11th in 34.5 in the Pheasant slalom at Heavenly Valley Saturday.

Sunday at Squaw Valley, the turkey slalom found Sierrra's Norwegian skier, Knut Olberg, 11th in 64.6 in Class A, Rothgeb and Ludlow ninth and 18th in Class B with 60.3 and 68.7 clockings. Bob Stauts and Pat Fleming were 13th and 16th in Class C clockings at 81.8 and 85.1.

STUDENTS WARNED ON ENROLLMENT DATE

Students planning to enroll at Sierra College for the spring semester were reminded today by Registrar Martin Taylor to send in applications and transcripts of all high school and college work prior to the January 22 deadline.

With the Christmas holidays approaching, it is easy for students to neglect to ask their past schools for transcripts.

NEWS FROM DONNER TRAIL

By Betty Kielhofer

The proud new purchasers of the Karl Kielhofer house in Donner Trail Estates are Jack and Lynn Guzman who operate the Mobil Station on West Emigrant Way. They have two tiny tots and want to move in immediately in order to enjoy the house for Christmas.

I just returned from a two-week trip to Oregon where I visited with Carol and Terry Tollefson. Their small son, Mark, had an unfortunate injury to his eye and has been hospitalized for quite some time, but their friends will be happy to know the eye was saved and he is on the road to recovery. They hope to come to Truckee for Christmas if everything continues to go well.

Upon my return, I found that a Reno operator has been flying to Truckee airport each Thursday and Saturday instructing students. Jack Ellis took it up and has soloed in just a few hours. Andy Creglow said there are a number of new students and they will soon start a ground school evenings for all of us who will be needing it. It's a wonderful sport and we think everyone should be doing it.

We were all sorry to hear Tom James has been hospitalized this last week. Hurry up and get well, Tom. I understand you're scheduled to start flying too! Robert Leamon has been taking lessons but haven't talked to him for quite some time to see how he's coming along. The last instructor we had here told me he was a natural.

Being away left me without an opportunity to gather any news so hope to have something more next week.

Boca Fishing

that Department of Fish and Game fisheries biologists examined Boca Reservoir and discovered it contained a teeming population of nongame fish but very few trout.

So they treated Boca Reservoir—and the Little Truckee River upstream from Boca—with a chemical fish killer, rotenone, and wiped out the fish population.

Lake treatment is an effective means of managing fish, but it's not a cure-all. Nongame fish will come back after a time, particularly in waters where anglers ignore the laws against using live minnows for bait. A few minnows—voracious eaters and prolific breeders—can breed a nongame fish infestation and squeeze out game fish like trout.

But a chemical treatment program can dramatically improve fishing at a lake for a number of years, and that's what's happening at Boca.

CREEL CHECKING

DFG fisheries managers conducted a creel check of anglers fishing at Boca Reservoir on the morning of September 5, 1964. The 25 fishermen they talked to had been fishing a total of 63 hours and had caught 78 rainbow trout between 9 and 10 inches long weighing almost half a pound apiece. And the fishermen were mighty happy with their catch from a lake that only a year ago had been yielding nothing but an occasional sucker or chub.

Based on other checks, the DFG estimated that the total angling use in Boca Reservoir for May, June and July of 1964 was 2,500 angler-days and that these fishermen caught some 6,000 trout. In 1963, before the treatment in October it is estimated that only 900 angler-days had been spent on Boca with fishermen taking only a few trout.

BOUNCE BACK

What made the fishing bounce back? A well-planned planting program was started after the treatment to insure good fishing in the lake, and take advantage of the good food supplies in the lake to grow trout.

As soon as the lake was no longer toxic for fish last October, 15,000 sub-catchable rainbow trout were planted. These fish were around six inches long. Then in the summer of 1964, 24,000 three-inch fingerling rainbows were planted, and at the same time several plants of catchable-sized fish running from six to eight inches long and weighing four ounces each were made.

Boca Reservoir is operated by the Sierra Pacific Power Company as part of a power and irrigation system. The treatment program at Boca has been extremely successful in large part because of the fine cooperation and efforts of the Sierra Pacific Power Company. They manipulated water levels in such a way that it was easy to treat the lake, and detoxify it; and then provided adequate water for planting and maintaining the new trout population.

Equalization Board Able to Operate New Department

LOS ANGELES—If a new state revenue department is to become a reality, the state board of equalization is available to operate it.

Paul Leake, chairman of the board, made this clear today. He was testifying before Republican Assemblyman Milton Marks' government organization committee.

"But the board is not on its knees, with cup in hand, begging for anything—we are not thirsty for more power," Leake assured the legislators.

On behalf of the board, Leake presented a proposal which "could save the state as much as $3,000,000 a year. It is the only one of several proposals for modification of the present revenue structure, which could be put into effect without a constitutional amendment" he advised.

The board's plan called for integration of the franchise tax board and the controller's motor transportation, motor vehicle tax and insurance tax collections with the board of equalization, the members of which are elected.

The board's proposal also called for absorption of the controller's inheritance and gift tax operations by the board. Leake bitterly assailed the long-time practice of controllers, Republicans as well as Democrats, appointing part-time appraisers drawn from other than vocational ranks. "These appraisers are expected to sweeten the controller's war chest and feather his political nest," Leake told the committee.

"This mess has long been the blackest mark on our government in California," he added. "We should blow the whistle on it for keeps."

The chairman of the board of equalization did not strongly advocate adoption of the board's proposals, "unless the legislature should decide that same change in the present elective board's smooth, stable, scandle free operation is in order."

Shotguns Issued To Highway Patrol

Shotguns will begin making their appearance in California Highway Patrol cars this month, according to an announcement by Bradford M. Crittenden, Commissioner of the Patrol.

"The California Legislature, in authorizing the installation of shotguns in patrol cars, has improved the highway patrol's ability to protect not only its own officers but the general motoring public as well against the activities of known felons," Crittenden declared. "The need for this added protection has been growing steadily, particularly as it pertains to attacks on members of the patrol and other peace officers.

"These shotguns will be fired only under circumstances which provide legal and moral justification for taking a human life and then only at a felon," Crittenden declared. "They are not to be used to stop speeders trying to evade arrest, but as a 'back-up weapon' in such circumstances as a roadblock, prison escape, or the apprehension of a known felon."

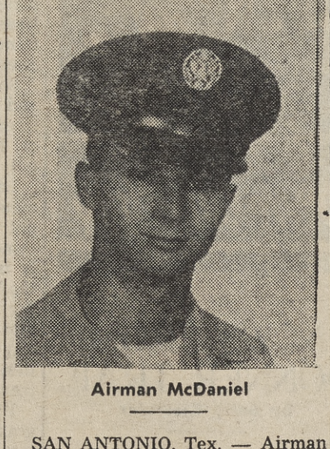
AIRMAN McDANIEL FINISHES TRAINING



Airman McDaniel

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. — Airman Lon S. McDaniel, son of Mrs. Blanche J. McDaniel of Tahoe City, Calif., has completed the first phase of his Air Force basic military training at Lackland AFB, Tex.

Airman McDaniel has been selected for technical training as an administrative specialist at the Air Training Command (ATC) school at Amarillo AFB, Tex. His new unit is part of the vast ATC system which trains airmen and officers in the diverse skills required by the nation's aerospace force.

The airman is a 1964 graduate of Roseville (Calif.) Union High School.

SCHWARTZ REPORTS ON BAY AREA MEET

Dr. Marvin I. Schwartz of Tahoe City returned today from San Francisco where he attended a post-graduate seminar held Thursday at the Clift Hotel for optometrists of the bay area. Presiding at the conference was Dr. A. M. Skeffington of St. Louis, Mo., author, lecturer, teacher and research authority in the vision care field.

"Urban living and over-protection of our children are resulting in a generation of poor readers," stated Dr. Skeffington. "Educators are being blamed unjustly for faulty methods of teaching when, all too often, the real core of the trouble in Johnny's inability to read is an existing visual problem. Such a problem may easily stem from the fact that during the early developmental years Johnny was never given the chance to run and leap and climb or to do those things for himself that are such a necessary part of the development of those visual skills required for learning to read."

months of July and August, and many vacation visitors and tourists have therefore been unable to visit the local chapter while they are staying in the area.

Following the business agenda a social hour and refreshments were enjoyed in the banquet hall under the chairmanship of Ruby Faulkner and her committee for the evening.

The final meeting for the year will be held on Tuesday, December 15, and will be a Christmas party for the members and their many visitors. Following a short meeting a Christmas salad and dessert buffet will be held in the banquet hall under the chairmanship of Conductress Barbara Shane, gifts will be exchanged and Christmas carols will be sung by the group. Entertainment and Santa Claus are part of the plans for the evening and members are invited to bring their non-member guests to join in the fun in the banquet hall after the close of the meeting.

Several car loads of visiting Eastern Stars are expected from the surrounding chapters as guests of the evening.

UNIFORM SCHEDULE FOR TRAFFIC COURT EFFECTIVE IN 1965

SACRAMENTO — (CNS) — Posting bail for a traffic ticket may not be any more pleasant after January 1, but there may be some satisfaction in knowing that it will be under a uniform schedule applying to all counties.

The state judicial council has approved the uniform schedule, to replace the present method under which judges in each county adopt a bail schedule. A survey showed bail in one county sometimes was 10 times higher than in another.

Judges will not be required to adopt the proposed uniform bail schedule but those who do not must report to the council in what respect their schedules differ from it.

The new schedule covers about 150 sections of the vehicle code, including most of the driver licensing and moving violations.

Bail for exceeding 60, 65 or 70 miles per hour speed limits would be $2 per mile for the first 10 miles, $3 per mile for the second 10, and $50 plus required court appearance for going 21 miles or more over the limit.

If the violation is of a speed limit of less than 60 mph, the bail would be $1 per mile for the first 10 miles in excess, $2 per mile for the second 10, $3 per mile for going 21 to 25 miles over the limit, and $50 plus court appearance for 26 miles or more over the limit.

This schedule is for first offense. A second offense within a 12-month period would increase the schedule by 50 per cent. Two priors within a year would mean doubling the bail, provided it is below the maximum permitted.

Any person with two or more prior non-parking traffic convictions within the preceding 12 months would be required to make a court appearance.

Other charges requiring a court appearance, and the bail, include: drunk driving, or under influence of drugs,, $300; reckless driving, $100; reckless driving with bodily injury, $300; speed contests, $100; leaving scene of accident after property damage, $250; duty to report accident, $50; driving while license is suspended or revoked, $250.
